HAPPY Janmashtami

Dear Parents,

The spirit of Janmashtami filled the KG Wing of Good Day Defence Sainik School with joy, devotion, music, and beautiful expressions of childhood.

Our little learners celebrated the birth of Lord Krishna through a vibrant and meaningful celebration that brought together dance, speeches, and a heartwarming Krishna–Sudama act.

— A CELEBRATION FILLED WITH JOY —

Dressed in colourful traditional attire, our little Krishnas brought the festive spirit alive with their graceful dance performances. Their cheerful smiles, innocent expressions, and energetic steps turned the celebration into a beautiful spectacle of joy.

Little Voices, Meaningful Words

The young learners also expressed their thoughts through speeches, confidently sharing messages inspired by the life and teachings of Lord Krishna. Their participation reflected not only their enthusiasm but also the confidence they are developing through such enriching experiences.

Krishna & Sudama - A Story of True Friendship

One of the most touching moments of the celebration was the Krishna–Sudama act. Through this timeless story of friendship, our little performers beautifully portrayed a bond built on love, loyalty, humility, and selflessness, reminding us that true friendship sees the heart, not wealth or status.

Learning Through Celebration

At GDDS, festivals are not merely occasions to celebrate; they are opportunities for children to experience culture, understand values, express themselves, and create cherished memories.

This Janmashtami, our little learners celebrated more than the birth of Krishna, they celebrated the values of friendship, kindness, love, humility, and compassion.

“ With little feet dancing to festive beats and little hearts carrying timeless values, Janmashtami at GDDS became a celebration to remember. ”

Warm regards,
